

Never Tired of You

Music and Lyrics by Adam Farouk

Once you said you'd never tire of me
Long ago I made a promise
To stay right by your side
Find you a place you could hide

Hear your voice now, such a faraway sound
Distant memories and the words to a song
When you said this was real
And a kiss was the most you could steal

Hide away paper moon
And tonight we'll be juleps in June
Hold my hand, let this dance start anew
Morning sun, home we'll fly
Say goodnight, not goodbye
Girl, you know, I'm never tired of you

Still I fly here, all the way 'cross the sea
You're the guide, my second star to the right
But your window, it's cold
And who's that saying that you've grown old

Hide away paper moon
And tonight we'll be juleps in June
Hold my hand, let this dance start anew
Morning sun, home we'll fly
Say goodnight, not goodbye
Girl, you know, I'm never tired of you
Never tired of you

Hide away paper moon
And tonight we'll be juleps in June
Hold my hand, let this dance start anew
Morning sun, home we'll fly
Say goodnight, not goodbye
Girl, you know, I'm never tired of you

Morning sun, home we'll fly
Say goodnight, not goodbye
Girl, you know, I'm never tired of you
I'm never tired of you
